

The Faust Branch of the Anthroposophical Society in America

This local branch of the national Society has been serving the greater Sacramento area for over forty years. Applications for membership in the General Anthroposophical Society and in the Faust Branch may be obtained by contacting Ronald Koetzsch at faustbranch@gmail.com or by speaking to any member of the Faust Branch coordinating committee.

Member's dues are $45, payable in September. Supporting Member dues are $85 and entitle one to free admission to lectures. Donor dues are $130 and entitle one to free admission to lectures and special events. Dues and contributions help pay for mailing and printing costs, room rentals, honoraria for lecturers and artists, as well as festival celebrations. Donations beyond the membership fees are gratefully received to support the programs and activities that benefit the entire community. Those with special financial circumstances are encouraged to speak with a member of the coordinating committee.

Themes for the Year 2020-2021

We will begin our year with a focus on Michael, time spirit of our age. Various topics of the day will be presented in this context. We will continue to bring attention to the individuality of Raphael and his various incarnations in this 100th anniversary of his death. The healing imaginations of the First Goetheanum will also be studied. Fall Presenters Include:
